

Everything Now

© Wm. D. Coffey

Prodigal:

For a long time now I've had this

8^{vb}

6

feel-in' in me to get out and go cause I've just got-ta see new fa-ces and pla-ces, I want-a tra-vel far away _____; It's a beau-ti-ful world, and life is so sweet, but youth is so short, and

(8)

11

(8)

16

I want-a meet new fac-es and pla-ces, Fa-ther, hear what I say; My

(8)

21

bro-ther's on-ly thir-ty three, on-ly ten years more than me, so set-tled in a rut that he stinks!

25

I don't wan-ta get that way, same old rou-tine eve-ry day, ag-ing fast, that'show he thinks!

29

In - stead of hang-in'round un-til I change my mind, I got-ta be free, got-ta

33

get out and find good liv - in'_____, and I know the way. You 38

on - ly need to give me my in - her - i - tance now, My half that you've willed us in cash, that's how it should be, Dad, Come on, wha-da ya say? My Father:

(8)

42

(8)

48

boy, you know that I want you to be at peace with your- self, but I wish you could see the end of the road that you're choos-ing to - day. Your in - her-i-tance I give you wil-ling-ly.

(8)

53

(8)

58

Go if you must, but please go cau-tious-ly, I beg you not to throw your life a - way.

(8)-----|

63

Prodigal:

Father:

Don't be so con-serv-a-tive, I just want to live! My con-cern on-ly stems from my love. I'll al-ways hold a place for you, where - ev - er fate may lead you to, my son you're al-ways wel-come to come home. Fath-er I ap pre-ci-ate your

67

8^{vb}-----|

70

Prodigal:

(8)-----|

8^{vb}-----|

74

words of con- cern, but I can't be wast- ing time on thoughts of re- turn. If you don't mind I'll just be on my way. I got my mo- tor- cy- cle and I got my cash. Don't you wor- ry 'bout me do- in'

(8)

79

(8)

84

noth- in' rash, I'll take eve- ry- thing now, I'm young, I'm free and I'm me, I'll take eve- ry- thing

(8)

89

now, I'm free, eve- ry- thing now, I'm free, I'm me _____.

(8)