

ALL SING THE FINALE: OH HOW LOVELY IS THE EVENING

All hands joined throughout:

1. Inner Ring start singing first, while walking to LEFT in time to the music:

"Oh how lovely is the evening, is the evening,"

2. Middle Ring start next and walk LEFT: "Oh how lovely is the evening, is the evening"

...while...

Inner Ring sing 2nd line and reverse walking to the RIGHT:

"When the bells are sweetly ringing, sweetly ringing,"

3. Outer Ring start last and walk LEFT: "Oh how lovely is the evening, is the evening"

...while...

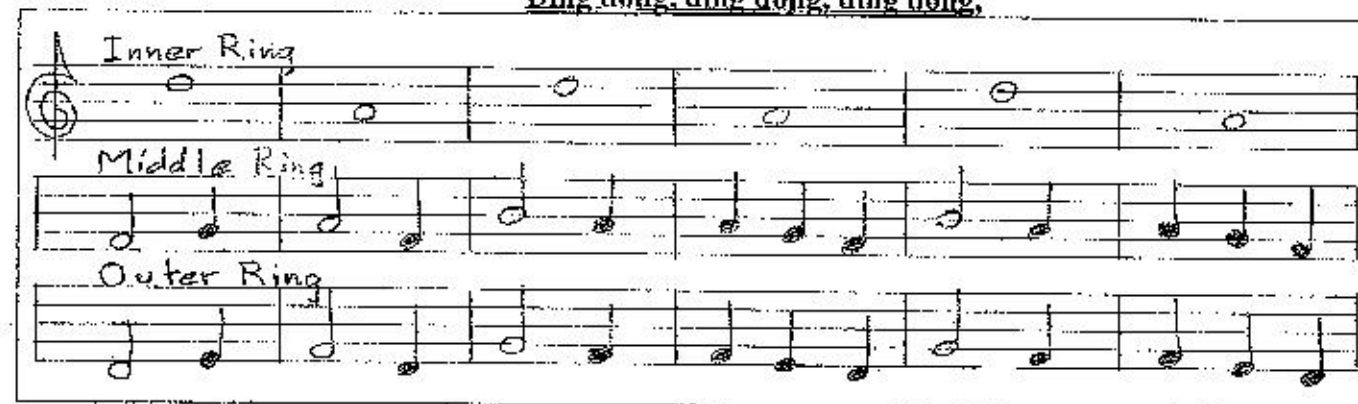

Middle Ring sing 2nd line and reverse walking to the RIGHT:

"When the bells are sweetly ringing, sweetly ringing,"

...and...

Inner Ring sing 3rd line, FACE CENTER and all swing arms bell-like:

"Ding dong, ding dong, ding dong,"

The Round continues 3-4 times [Director's choice], with each line taking the respective actions.

TO FINISH: After the Inner Ring completes their last time through the round, they continue singing the Ding Dong line and swinging their arms while the Middle Ring is now doing the same with their last line. Inner and Middle rings continue this till they are joined by the Outer Ring so that all three rings are now singing the Ding Dong line and swinging their arms in rhythm; all keep their arms raised high on one last (extra) "D-i-i-n-g."
